MEADOWS BUILDERS ONE, LLC

ABOUT THE BUILDER

Known throughout the Capital Region as a prominent and successful business leader, a dedicated family man, as well as for his charitable generosity, Roddy Valente started his first of many companies decades ago and continues to stand out and build an empire, having deep ties to a multitude of both residential and commercial projects. Roddy uses the most cutting-edge construction methods and technologies in the industry today. Because of his more than 30 years of critical experience and knowledge in various construction industries, namely development and custom home building, Dean Marotta is never short of extraordinary and he consistently plays an exceptional role and is a key player in all facets of the construction world. He is a standout amongst his peers. Rounding out the group is Anthony Casale, an R.P.I. graduate and budding entrepreneur, who has vast experience in construction services.

Together, Roddy and Dean have built a reputation for quality work and excellent customer service during their long history involving numerous subdivisions, apartment complexes, commercial parks and mixed-use buildings. Meadows Builders One, LLC is a team of experienced professionals who oversee all aspects of their projects. The dynamic work culture is built on a practical, yet creative approach and their oversight is key to their success.

Meadows Builders One, LLC is excited to provide great value to its residents at The Meadows of North Greenbush by providing high-quality, amenity-rich suburban living at attainable prices in a beautiful, safe, and convenient location.
